

The background image shows a wide-angle view of a university campus. In the foreground, there is a large, well-maintained green field, likely a sports field or lawn, with white boundary lines. To the right, a portion of a running track is visible. In the middle ground, a modern, multi-story university building with a mix of grey and yellow/orange architectural elements stands prominently. The building has several windows and a distinctive design. To the left of the main building, there is a green fence and some trees. The sky is overcast and grey. The entire scene is framed by a thin white border.
